A Report on DAHI HANDI CELEBRATION

On Tuesday, 19th September 2023, Agnihotri College of Pharmacy, Wardha organized a DAHI HANDI CELEBRATION, with enthusiastic participation from students. Students from various classes formed teams for the dahi-handi event.

The students displayed great joy as they successfully broke the 'Dahi Handi' (pot of butter & curd) to mark this occasion. Dahi Handi is a traditional and joyful game played during the celebration of Krishna's birth on Janmashtami. It is celebrated with much festivity. A competition was organized where boys from each class formed teams, constructed human pyramids, and attempted to reach or break the pot. The team achieving this in the shortest time was declared the winner. The event is inspired by the legend of Krishna, who is said to have enjoyed stealing butter and other milk products as a child (he is also called Makhan chor). This sacred occasion fosters unity and faith among people.

Students thoroughly enjoyed the event and recognized it as a cultural celebration as well as an opportunity to develop 'Team building and Competitive spirit,' which are valuable skills for collaborative work and leadership.

Day & Date: Monday, September 21, 2023.

Venue: Agnihotri College of Pharmacy, Wardha.

Time: 10.00 am to 12.00 pm

Rules and Regulations:

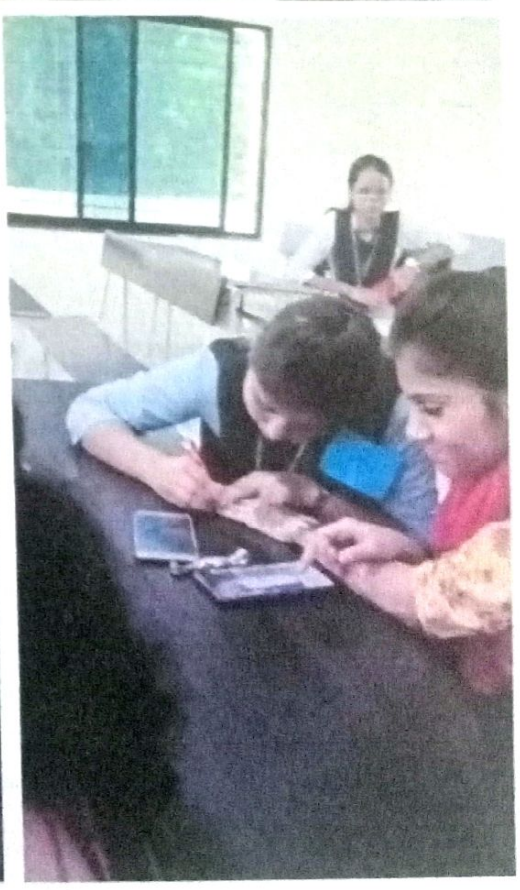

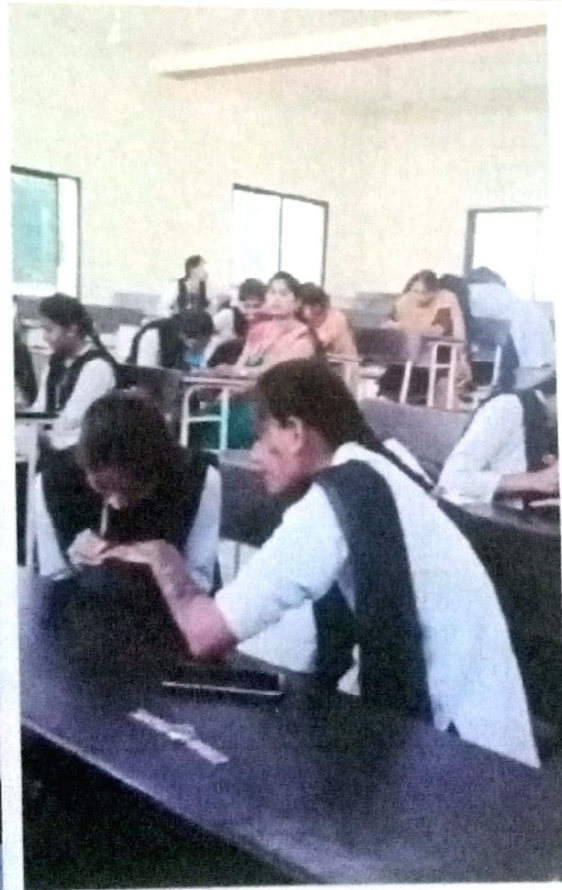

- Participants must create creative and unique Mehndi designs.
- Mehndi designs should be applied on one hand up to the elbow.
- Designs must cover the entire hand, including both sides of the palm.
- Participants are required to bring their own materials, including Mehndi cones.
- Each team must consist of two participants: one artist and one model.
- The time limit for completing the Mehndi design is one hour, with no extra time provided.
- Judging will be based on overall appearance, creativity, and design.

Mehndi, also known as henna, is a paste associated with positive spirits and good luck. This competition was organized to promote and preserve traditional values among students. Students enthusiastically participated in the competition, showcasing their artistic talents through a variety of Mehndi designs on their hands. While some designs were traditional and common, others were unique and trendy. The objective of this competition was not only to assess the drawing skills of the students but also to evaluate their creativity and ability to express themselves, thereby contributing to their overall personality development. Students created beautiful designs inspired by different themes, reflecting the rich Indian culture that combines knowledge of medicinal herbs with various sentiments and beliefs. It is believed that the deeper color of Mehndi on the hands symbolizes profound love, while in some communities, the darkness of Mehndi indicates the strength of relationships.

Winners of the competition:

- First position secured by Anamsaniya Sheikh, B.Pharm Final year
- Second position secured by Monika Paradkar, B.Pharm third year

The principal appreciated all the participants and congratulated the winners.
